

Dilek Bolcan

After graduating from the department of METU Environmental Engineering, she started his Professional life in the Research Center of Şişecam Group*. Currently, she has been the Environmental Manager in the Group's Corporate Development and Sustainability Department. In addition to the responsibilities regarding the coordination and management of the work undertaken in environmental and sustainability areas within the Group, in parallel she also serves in the related committees of local and foreign active corporations for the environmental sustainability of glass manufacturing process and glass products.