

Gökben Güven ÖZÇİÇEK

Gökben Given Özçiçek to study at Yıldız Teknik University Restoration Department in 1991 and graduated as 2nd successful student of the department and continued her education in Yıldız Teknik University Architecture Department and graduated in 1998. She accomplished her academic education with the Restoration Graduate Degree.

Her professional life started in 1995 at Enka Group and continued at Dođuş Group in 1996. She accomplished The Machka Palace Restoration as the 1st apartment block restoration project within Dođuş Group in 1998 then transferred to Hakan Kiran Architecture Office where she got an important role as the Project manager of Mydonose Showland, Turkey's 1st Pavilion Project's completed in 1999.

In 2002, she started to work for Lafarge Concrete as the Special Projects and Special Products Responsible. Mrs. Özçiçek has been participated to some workshops and application studies in France and England about self-levelling concrete, Light Concrete & Decorative Concrete's Technics. According to the information obtained from workshops, she could implant new concrete types in Terms of Contract of the reinforcement projects in Turkey. She started her university career at Yıldız Teknik University and gave the course: "Up-to-date Concrete Applications in Architecture". In 2008, while working as Special Products Sales Development Manager, she got a reward from Lafarge France because of Turkey's 2nd range in the special product sales volume. In 2009, she was rewarded from England, for Turkey's 2nd range in self-levelling concrete production. She worked at Türk Ytong as the Business Development Manager for 5 years. Now, she works at Arkas Holding's Ponsblok Company in December 2015 as the Business Development, Sales and Marketing Board Member.