

Assist. Prof. Dr. Ece Ceylan Baba

Ece Ceylan Baba received her undergraduate degree from Mimar Sinan Academy of Fine Arts, ranking first both in entrance exams and graduation. After receiving her master's degree from the Department of Architecture at Yeditepe University, she pursued her PhD degree at the Department of Architecture at Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University. Baba currently serves as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Architecture at Bahçeşehir University. Her areas of expertise are high-rise buildings, globalization, metropolitan areas, urban regeneration, user participation, environment and urban psychology, housing typologies, and lofts, on which she continues her research and publications. Her book, titled "Tasarım Demokrasisi ve İstanbul" ("Democracy of Design and İstanbul"), was published in September 2012, and her book titled "Loft: Modernizmden Postmodernizme Geçiş Sürecinde Loft Mimarisi ve İstanbul'daki Yansımaları" ("Loft: Loft Architecture and Its Projection in İstanbul during the Transition from Modernism to Postmodernism"), was published in May 2015. In addition to her academic work, she pursues her professional architecture career as the founding partner of Baba Mimarlık and as the Vice President of Seranit Group. She also is a board member of İMSAD (Association of Turkish Construction Materials Producers), SERFED (Turkish Ceramics Federation), SERKAP (Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association).