

Assist. Prof. Dr. İlker Kahraman

İlker Kahraman studies on sustainable building approaches, sustainable living spaces, energy-efficient design strategies and life-cycle analysis approaches. He is at the management committee of IISBE International (International Initiative for Sustainable Built Environment) and also EPD Turkey. In order to implement green building design criterion in Turkish construction market KAHRAMAN works in collaboration with; UNDP and Ministry of Environment and Urbanism(Turkey), commissions of Turkish Chamber of Architects, and also he is working as Energy Performance Certificate Expert Trainer on behalf of the Ministry and the Chamber of Architects (Turkey). Dr. Kahraman is still working in Architectural Faculty of Yaşar University as an assistant professor and vice dean.