

Prof. Dr. Nesrin Yardımcı

Nesrin Yardımcı was as a lecturer at İstanbul Technical University between 1972 and 2008. For various terms she served as a Member of the Board at Civil Engineering Faculty, the Directorate of Culture and Art Association, the group Coordinator of the Timber and Steel Structures, Graduate Program Coordinator and she represented Faculty of Civil Engineering at the Senate of University. Since September 2008, she has been serving as a Full Professor and also as a Chair of Civil Engineering Department at Yeditepe University and she represents Faculty of Engineering at the Senate of University. She was elected as the President of TUCSA in 2001 and since then she has been representing Turkey in the Board of Directors at ECCS. She was also elected as Vice President between 2008-2009, President between 2009- 2010 and 2014-2015 at ECCS. She was honoured with ECCS Silver Medal on 18 September 2015 “in recognition for her outstanding commitment to ECCS”.