

Prof. Dr. Seda Tönük

After completing her architecture degree and master's degree at Istanbul Technical University Faculty of Architecture she has completed her doctor degree at Vienna Technical University Faculty of Architecture and Space Planning. Since 1987, Yildiz Technical University, she has been working as academician at the Faculty of Architecture in Building Science Department. She has national and international papers, national books as author and editorship and book-chapters. She has organized as congress-chair three times national and and an international congress with main theme "Environment and Design". She has national and international architectural office practice.