

Prof.Dr. Sevil Sariyıldız

Sevil Sariyıldız is recently the Dean of Faculty of Architecture at Yaşar University-İzmir, Turkey and Professor of Technical Design & Informatics at the Faculty of Architecture, Department of Architectural Engineering and Technology at Delft University of Technology -The Netherlands since 1993. Sariyıldız received Bsc degree in Architecture from YIU Istanbul-TR and Building Engineering Bsc and Msc degrees at TU Delft-NL (cum-laude) and PhD from TU Delft-NL (cum laude). During her Phd she worked at TU Darmstadt –Germany as well. She has been Department Head of Building Technology at the faculty of Architecture and acting Rector Magnificus for the conferral of doctorates at the TU Delft. She has been “distinguished guest professor” at Pennsylvania State University-USA. She has been invited Keynote Speaker in international conferences and participates as a member of many national and international councils, organizations and scientific committees and international projects. She has more than 200 scientific publications and about 30 PhD students besides Msc students and other management activities. She has been advisor of the Dutch Ministry of Spatial Planning and Environment for 8 years and also advisor of the Ministry of Social Affairs in the Netherlands. She is the founder of DEWIS (Delft Women in Science) Network and initiator of the collaboration between Dutch and Turkish Universities. She has been chosen in 2015 as one of the “50 most influential Turks in the Netherlands” (Volkskrant), in 2009 as one of the “26 successful Turks in the Netherlands” (Elsevier magazine), in 2002 by the The Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research chosen as one of the 20 “Colorful Talent in Science”, in 2003 as one of the “Top 10 women” in the Netherlands and in 2006 as one of the “Four successful foreigner in science in the Netherlands”. She has been practicing architect as well.