

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sırma Turgut

Sırma Turgut is an academic staff member of Yıldız Technical University, Faculty of Architecture, Department of Urban and Regional Planning. After completing her license degree education at Yıldız Technical University, Faculty of Architecture, Department of Urban and Regional Planning in 1991, she obtained her master's degree at Istanbul University, Management Sciences – Management Organization and Management Policies Program. Dr. Turgut pursued her doctorate training at YTU, on the topic of urban management and planning management procedures and İstanbul, and now lectures and further studies about the topics of process management of urban planning in local administrations, municipal work, metropolitan planning and management, urban conservation, renewal and regeneration / transformation, and organization of social inclusion projects. Turgut is also the author of books titled; "İstanbul'un Yönetimi", "Bir Kent Planlama Yönetimi Denemesi ve Bir Yerel Yönetim Deneyiminin Ardından Küçükçekmece Ayazma Tepeüstü Kentsel Dönüşüm Projesi" and "In The Wake of a Local Government Initiative: İstanbul- Küçükçekmece Urban Regeneration Project". Having number of international papers, articles declarations and researches about the relevant topics, and continuing her own personal developments and education in the varying topics and fields at national and international arenas.